

Designed for Military students, their families, and the caring professionals who support them, SchoolQuest is an educational resource tool from the Military Child Education Coalition. Although the primary audience includes Military students and their parents, SchoolQuest is well-suited to anyone who is “questing” information about schools, college and workplace readiness, transition, and more. The MCEC SchoolQuest site offers:

Browse for Schools

Find any public - and many private – schools or districts in the US. You can also find Department of Defense schools for military installations overseas.

SchoolQuest College Planners

College planning made easy! You can prepare for ACT and SAT tests, research colleges and courses of study, make a plan for financing college, find scholarships and get tips for completing admissions and scholarship forms.

State Educatiaon Resources

Our SER section is a compilation of resources in one location for all fifty states, DODEA and Washington, D.C. It provides information about state school requirements and resources by each individual state or you can research a specific resource area in one or more states.

SchoolQuest Library

Our library is stocked with terrific resources to answer questions you may have about educational transitions, college and workplace readiness, special needs and many other subjects.

SchoolQuest Profile

Think of this as your “virtual file drawer” accessible from anywhere in the world. Create a password-protected profile to store students’ educational, extracurricular, award, volunteer and work information.

SchoolQuest Blog

Share your thought and experiences and see what others have to say. Our blog is updated regularly with the latest information for Military students and their families.

Ask Aunt Peggie

“Aunt Peggie” knows transition. Can’t find the answers to questions about transferring credit, choosing the right school...or anything else related to your education? Ask Aunt Peggie!
